Rob's Recommendations

Choosing wines for Longbow's list was tough, but I'm excited to recommend a few personal favourites. These selections are more than just wines; they're stories of the vineyards and passion of the winemakers I've known for years. Enjoy these top picks for their exceptional value and quality.

Cheers! Rob

Bohigas Cava Brut Reserva

Bottle £36.95

Spain

With depth and quality not always found in Cava, thanks to the careful handling of the vineyards and the traditional production methods used by the family for the past 800 years. You just can't fake that level of involvement and the results shine through in this sparkling ready for all your celebrations.

Cuvee Alexandre Rosé, Val de Gilly

Afterword

Crafting Longbow's wine list was a journey of passion and discernment. The challenge wasn't just in the selection, but in distilling our list to a few exemplary choices that I personally would recommend. These are not just wines; they are narratives of years of acquaintance, a testament to the dedication of their makers.

Each wine on our list is a familiar friend. I've met the vineyard owners, known the winemakers, and walked their lands. This intimate understanding ensures that our wines genuinely reflect the essence of their origin - the unique terroir - as well as the skill and heart of their creators. It's a celebration of tradition and craftsmanship, a tribute to the art of winemaking.

If you seek guidance on pairing a wine with your meal, our knowledgeable staff are eager to assist. We are proud of our selection and hope you find as much joy in these wines as we do.

If you have an allergy or intolerance, please speak to a team member before you order food or drink.
